

NY APPLE CORE COLLEGE DEVELOPMENT JUNIORS
PRESENTS
JOINT OPEN TRYOUTS FOR THE 2010-2011 SEASON
FOR THE EASTERN JR 'A' HOCKEY LEAGUE
EMPIRE JR 'B' HOCKEY LEAGUE
AND THE CHA JR 'B' HOCKEY LEAGUE
PLAYERS BORN 1990 - 1995

Dear Student / Athlete;

The NY Apple Core College Development Program, the Tri-State's most successful College developmental program begins the tryout process for the 2010-11 season. Apple Core has placed more than (175) players since 1994 in top Colleges and Universities all across the United States and at the current time has (43) players playing professional hockey, including (7) in the National Hockey League. The (3) Apple Core Junior teams play in three of the most prestigious Leagues on the East Coast. The Eastern Junior 'A' Hockey League is by far the top League east of the Mississippi and is recognized by the College fraternity as the best place to find top recruits for Div. 1 positions. The Empire Jr. B Hockey League team is Apple Core's feeder team for the Jr. 'A' team and the CHA Jr. 'B' team is a feeder for the Empire Jr. 'B' team. Together, these three teams have created a pyramid of success for years. The players receive tremendous exposure with each Jr. A player being seen 10-15 times by most schools. The highly successful EJ showcases held in the Boston area have been scouting hotbeds for a long time running. Colleges such as Yale, Army, Boston U, Boston College, Vermont, Cornell, The SUNY schools, just to name a few regularly scout the Apple Core players. NHL players Mark Eaton (Pittsburgh Penguins) & Rob Scuderi (LA Kings), Doug Murray & Ryan Vesce (San Jose Sharks), Eric Nystrom (Calgary), Martins Karsums (Tampa Bay) and Matt Gilroy (NY Rangers) all received their training and exposure at the 'Core. Apple Core players have been selected for the NDTP and the Apple Core Jr. A program boasts a huge number of participants in the famous Beanpot College Tournament

The Apple Core program works with the Central Scouting people of the NHL, and will have a working relationship with the USHL. Apple Core defenseman Anthony Bitetto currently plays out in the USHL, the country's best and only Tier 1 Jr. A Hockey League.

Apple Core Administrator and GM Henry Lazar has personal relationships with all the College coaches to help the players.

Apple Core's goal of providing great competition and exposure while enabling a player to live in his own home has been a huge success.

The OPEN tryouts are for players born after Jan 1, 1990 and will be evaluated as follows:

- Player will be invited back for EJ only tryout (April 16-18)
- Player will be offered a Jr. B Empire Contract
- Player will be offered a Jr. B CHA Contract

As a Player and competitor, your goal is to put yourself in the best possible situation to play at the best possible level of competition. AC provides the best training and best competition at each level possible in the Eastern US. Don't be fooled by false claims from other competitors. Ask them for their placement record for the last 7 years and compare with Apple Core's. It's not even close. Our alumni can be found on our web site at ---- applecorejunior.com

With renovated locker rooms, a long term contract and new video and gym facilities, the AC Junior program will be healthy and successful for years to come.

There is only (1) Apple Core. You cannot imitate Excellence.
